[REDACTED] aka; [REDACTED] - VICTIM; ITAR - EXTORTION; CONSPIRACY" (Bufile 166-2735) (NY File 166-1338), on 3/18/68, a jury in the USDC, SDNY, returned guilty verdict charging [REDACTED] with violation of Title 18, Section 371, U.S. Code. On 4/17/68, [REDACTED] was sentenced in the USDC, SDNY, to five years custody of the Attorney General. AUSA, SDNY, advised expected [REDACTED] to appeal his conviction.

In case entitled, [REDACTED] ITWI; ITAR - GAMBLING" (Bufile 165-1620) (NY File 165-860), a FGJ, SDNY, returned an indictment on 2/18/65, charging [REDACTED] with violation of Title 18, Section 1084 and 1952, U.S. Code. On 3/29/68, the AUSA, SDNY, advised that the outstanding indictment against [REDACTED] had been nolle prosequi in view of the fact that at the time of the trial statements made by the USA before the jury and the trial judge which resulted in a mistrial for prejudice were tantamount to barring a retrial because it would in fact amount to double jeopardy.

By ROBERT WILLIAMS

The threat of deportation haunted Italian-born Thomas (Three-Finger Brown) Luchese Saturday as he found himself exposed by the State Crime Commission as the sinister successor to Frank Costello's racket barony.

Two Immigration agents sat in the Supreme Court hearing room where commission witnesses stripped Luchese of his shadowy privacy. FBI agents, meanwhile, were known to be tracking down every significant move made by Luchese since he entered the country in 1911.

A legal pitfall confronted the swarthy little garment manufacturer, meanwhile, in the form of an SCC subpoena to take the witness stand at the public hearing.

Aware of the danger, Luchese obtained an order from Supreme Court Justice Greenberg Thursday directing the SCC to show cause Tuesday why the subpoena should not be thrown out.

Some of the 600 pages of private testimony Luchese has given the state agency was aired by the commission Friday—and all of it, by order of Chairman Proskauer, has been made part of the public hearing record.

It was still questionable, therefore, that the SEC would consider it necessary to ~~put him~~ on the griddle before an audience.

FBI Dives Into His Past

As the search for Alvin Karpis' agent here at war kidnapping into the details of the LaLuzerne story from the time he entered the U. S. to the date of his naturalization, June 20, 1933.

The long-awaited SCC inquiry into underworld influence in politics hit high gear Friday with every prospect of momentous disclosure next week.

George White, agent-in-charge of New England for the U. S. Narcotics Bureau, revealed that a narcotics peddler was slain in Harlem last two months ago after he named LaLuzerne's Frank Costello's name.

Missing Piece Supplied

Arnold Chankalian, 49, administrative assistant in the U. S. Attorney's office, supplied the next big piece in the SCC's jigsaw portrait of Three-Finger Brown.

A few hours after he testified his superior, U. S. Atty. Lane, announced that at the request of Atty. Gen. McGranery, a complete transcript of Chankalian's testimony would be forwarded to Washington "for such action as he deems appropriate."

Lane pointed out that Chankalian, a civil service employee of the FBI, would be allowed to conform to civil service regulations.

Lane said he would not discuss the testimony until he had seen the official transcript of the hearing.

From City Hall, a flurry of details arose over charges made before the SCC that bookmaker Jackson had received favored treatment while serving his two-year prison term on Rikers Island.

The prison warden, Milton Kistin, had told the commission Thursday that Erickson had issued 184 passes for "bunch visits" that permit prisoners and visitors to talk without being separated by a screen.

Kistin said that during this same period, the other 2,400 prisoners combined received 888 such passes. The warden said he had been ordered by Correction Commissioner Williams to give Erickson a "desirable job" and other favors.

Williams, through his secretary, denied the favored treatment allegation. He said the there was no evidence that "bunch visit" passes were not on Dwyer's payed any part in it. In any case, he was being reduced in number.

Impellitteri backed Williams, saying the charges against Dwyer had already had been probed by Investigation Commissioner Shultz. The mayor and Williams gave a satisfactory explanation when the large number of visitors entered to City Hall.

Impellitteri, backed Williams, saying the charges against Dwyer had already been probed by Investigation Commissioner Shultz. The mayor and Williams gave a satisfactory explanation when the large number of visitors entered to City Hall.

Hope of obtaining a State Parole Board in the winter would award "good conduct certificates" for LaLuzerne to ease his return.

D. DANIEL NEUSTEIN

He abandoned his efforts, said Chankalian, where LaLuzerne initially denied the favored treatment of "bunch visit" passes. He said there was no evidence that Dwyer played any part in it. In any case, he was being reduced in number.

Impellitteri backed Williams, saying the charges against Dwyer had already been probed by Investigation Commissioner Shultz. The mayor and Williams gave a satisfactory explanation when the large number of visitors entered to City Hall.

Three-Finger Brown's name was injected into the campaign by State Industrial Commissioner John Dwyer, the long-time Coriolis Republican nominee who favored members of prominent families as an underworld source of persons. He also admitted former of Impellitteri, Coriolis, Adams and concurring charged that other members of the family in 1938 in the leaders, including Coriolis, Joe Adonis and Vito Genovese, were quietly backing the Democratic-Liberal candidate, former Supreme Court Justice Pecora.

When he heard the charges, said Chankalian, he went to see Luchese and informed him that he could no longer hobnob with him. It was then Luchese informed him that the Parole Board had given him a good-conduct certificate.

The private testimony or as much of it as was read in the hearing room, of Luchese, disclosed admissions of an imposing array of friends and acquaintances both in the underworld and public life.

It jibed with the veritable parade of Tammany district leaders who took the stand Thursday and blandly admitted friendships of one degree or another with Costello, bookmaker Frank Erickson, Trigger Mike Coppola, Joey Rao, Willie Moretti, Joe Adonis and Luchese himself.

Mayor Impellitteri, one of the many officials whom Luchese acknowledged knowing for four or five years, insisted at City Hall that it was no friendship.

Impellitteri said he had known Luchese "as a reputable dress manufacturer" whom he met "infrequently and always at public occasions." He said he never knew Luchese as "Three-Finger Brown."

One of the high-points of Friday's hearing was the reading of a transcript of a phone conversation Chankalian allegedly made to Luchese at his home at 106 Parsons Blvd. in Malba, Queens, Dec. 11, 1950.

Ben A. Matthews, chief counsel to the SCC, said the transcript was obtained from District Hogan's office. The most interesting aspect was a reference to the "big guy" and "the boss." Far from knowing who any such individual was, Chankalian insisted he couldn't even remember the conversation.

Another committee witness, I. Daniel Neustein, deposed Tammany leader of the Sixth A.D. on the Lower East Side, testified later that Costello was frequently referred to as "the Boss" around Tammany Hall.

Neustein, incidentally, said he lost his district leadership to Sidney Moses because "the Boss didn't want me around any longer."

At the outset of the hearings, Chairman Proskauer made it clear that the SCC was not aiming at producing evidence for prosecutions. He said the data gathered would be used in making recommendations to the Legislature aimed at protecting the government from underworld inroads.

FBI and Immigration agents, however, watched the proceedings for any technicality which might be used to relieve Luchese of his naturalization and send him back to Palermo.

Lucky Luciano, an acknowledged Luchese pal of old, was given the trans-Atlantic heave-ho as an undesirable alien after his conviction as the ranking vice overlord. But Luciano was never naturalized and the process was simpler.

The government is proceeding against Costello, who is doing time for perjury in Atlanta Federal Penitentiary, with the same goal.

CLIPPING FROM THE
N.Y. MIRROR

N.Y.

DATED NOV 18 1952
FORWARDED BY N.Y. DIVISION

The U. S. Government moved yesterday to strip Thomas (Three-Finger Brown) Luchese of his citizenship and deport him, as an undesirable alien, on grounds that he lied about his criminal record when he became a naturalized American.

Attorney General McGranery in Washington, ordered

THOMAS (THREE-FINGER BROWN) LUCHESE

U. S. Attorney Parker, in Brooklyn, to file a petition today, seeking to revoke the citizenship of Luchese, central figure in the current explosive State Crime Commission probe. The petition will be the first step in the Federal drive to send the racketeer back to Italy, McGranery said.

Luchese—whose name appeared in government records as Luchese, and who was born Giacomo Luchese in Palermo, Sicily—has been under FBI investigation for two months.

In his application for citizenship in 1938, the heavyset immigrant—who entered this country in 1911, admitted only one arrest—a 1923 conviction for auto theft in Suffolk County, for which he served three years and eight months.

He reported he had not been

U.S. Moves To Deport Luchese

arrested on any other charge, Me. Granery said, whereas the FBI investigation revealed that he had been arrested four other times—on a homicide charge in 1928, a second homicide arrest in 1930, for "investigation" in 1931, and for "inquiry" in 1932.

All of these arrests, McGranery told reporters, ended in discharge, dismissal, or "no disposition"—but the naturalization laws specify that applicants must list all arrests, whether resulting in convictions or not.

Luchese obtained his first papers in October, 1936, his second papers July 13, 1940, and was sworn in as a citizen Jan. 30, 1943, in Newark. His last-known address was Malba, Queens.

McGranery also has instituted similar proceedings against Costello, whom Luchese allegedly succeeded as crime overlord.

A U. S. narcotics agent last week told the state crime探者 that Luchese—who listed his occupation as the Braunell, Ltd., garment manufacturering concern at 253 W. 37th St.—has become the "coordinator" of the dope traffic in the United States.

[redacted] and [redacted] of the law firm of SCHWARTZ AND FROEHLICH, 19 East 70th Street, NYC, were interviewed by SAS [redacted] on 11/20/52.

At the outset both [redacted] remarked that they could not understand what all the fanfare was about inasmuch as LUCKESE was in their office yesterday afternoon for a period of two hours, leaving at about 5:30 p.m. [redacted] stated that during the time LUCKESE was present in the office he, [redacted] had telephoned Deputy Marshal [redacted] EDNY, and advised [redacted] that if he wanted to serve LUCKESE with papers he was at liberty to do so by coming over to their office and serving LUCKESE in their office. [redacted] then stated that [redacted] told him that he did not want LUCKESE in the SDNY but wanted him in the EDNY and that [redacted] was to bring him over to the EDNY. Both [redacted] then stated that they refused [redacted] this request and the matter was let stand at that point.

[redacted] then stated that the reason he would not have anything to do with causing LUCKESE's presence in the EDNY was because he stated he could see the whole picture of the incident causing a great deal of publicity and everybody involved trying to get into the act. He stated that after seeing the eleven o'clock news last night reflecting a televised scene of the Marshals in Brooklyn knocking on doors with legal papers being exhibited to the television audience, all he could picture was that if LUCKESE was served in the EDNY that there would be a galaxy of sound trucks, television cameras, newsmen, photographers, etc.

He stated that there was absolutely no reason for LUCKESE to be avoiding service of any kind. He said that he could not picture anything but trouble if his absence was continued and both [redacted] stated that they would never, under any circumstances, be a party to the obstruction of justice.

[redacted] then stated that he was extremely interested in cooperating with this Bureau and, in fact, indicated that he had a great respect for the Bureau and Mr. Hoover. [redacted] stated that he was interested in having LUCKESE served in this civil matter with the least amount of fanfare involved. He said he would do all he could to effect the service of LUCKESE right in his office. He stated when he heard from LUCKESE he would do all he could to effect the service quietly with absolutely no publicity involved.

FROM : SAC, PHILADELPHIA (62-3079)

SUBJECT: THOMAS LUCHESE, was. ~~62-1115~~
INFORMATION CONCERNING

DATE: 11/26/52

Re your phone call to Philadelphia, 11/21/52.

JOHN FRANCIS O'BRIEN was interviewed on 11/21/52 at his room, number 27, Terrace Hotel, 242 Adams Avenue, Scranton, Pa., by SAs [redacted] and [redacted]. Mr. O'BRIEN is 71 years old, having been born in New York City on 7/18/81, and is by trade a Linotype operator. He has been unemployed since 9/12/52, when he gave up his job at the Scranton Tribune Newspaper because of ruptured varicose veins in his left leg. It was noted that he had the left leg from his knee down heavily bandaged. He said he recently returned from Florida where he had stayed at the Sylvia Hotel in Miami from September 24 to November 2, 1952. He traveled to Florida by train and returned by bus.

He said he is married, is childless, and that his wife, a registered nurse in New Jersey, is residing in Morrisville, Pa. He disclaimed any marital difficulties, explaining that his wife is kept extremely busy with her work and he believes there are better opportunities for him to obtain employment in Scranton, plus the fact that he can live more inexpensively in that city.

Mr. O'BRIEN alleged that he has had over thirty-five years of experience as a Linotype operator and had previously worked for the Tribune when it was called the Scranton Republican. He has also worked for the Old State Gazette in Trenton, N. J., from approximately 1925 to 1931. His work on the Scranton Republican was during the 1930's. Mr. O'BRIEN also gave information that he grew up in Washington, D.C., and had worked in the Government Printing Office.

Mr. O'BRIEN volunteered the information that he had written to THOMAS LUCHESE approximately ten days ago for the purpose of asking the latter for a job. He mentioned this fact when he was lamenting his inability to obtain work. He said he had been reading about LUCHESE and in view of his belief that wealthy racketeers invest in newspapers and utilities, decided to write him. He said he wrote something in his letter to the effect that if LUCHESE or any of his associates owned a newspaper he was making application for a job with them and stressed his thirty-five years experience. He used an address for LUCHESE of Palisades, N. J., as he said he had seen that address in the paper and not knowing any other, used it.

Mr. O'BRIEN denied knowing LUCHESE or ever having seen or having anything to do with him other than the mentioned letter. He disclaimed any knowledge of anyone who might know LUCHESE or where the latter might be. He asserted that his only intention in writing to LUCHESE was to obtain work and felt that such an approach would accomplish such purpose. He said he had not had an answer to his letter.

Mr. O'BRIEN is 5' 9", weighs 170 pounds, has grey hair and blue eyes. He appeared to be a rather strong-willed person and one who wants to be regarded as "knowing the score." He denied any arrest record and said the only trouble he has ever been in were several fist fights when he was younger. He indicated a leaning toward reading and cited many names of national hoodlums he had read about in the papers and magazines.

Mr. B. B. POWELL, Managing Editor of the Scranton Tribune, advised SA [redacted] that O'BRIEN has worked for the paper as indicated and that he is regarded as somewhat lazy. On both occasions of his leaving the paper, there has been some question as to his initiative and willingness to work. Other than that, Mr. POWELL said there was nothing derogatory concerning the man.

MEMO:

Re: THOMAS LUCHESE WAS.,
Information Concerning,
File No. 62-11190-36

Re call from SAC Boardman to writer at 7 pm on November 27, 1952 concerning PAPA DUTCH GOLDBERG, supposedly of the 300 block of East 3rd Street, New York City and one (fnu) CHAIT of Peekskill, New York.

Review of numerous indices cards and N.Y. file 94-419B reflects Goldbergs correct name to be HENRY GOLDBERG, aka DUTCH GOLDBERG, LOUIS GOLDBERG, LOUIS SHOMBERG, with his residence being given as 187 East 4th Street, N.Y.C.

Immediate inquiries in the 300 block of East 3rd Street failed to develope any information indicating the presence in that block of any individual with the name of the subject or any of his aliases.

Inquiry at 187 East 4th Street reflected a Henry Goldberg had resided at that address with [redacted] until 4 years ago. Additional investigation in the neighborhood did not develope any information concerning GOLDBERGS' or SHOMBERGS' present whereabouts.

Review of current Manhattan telephone directory indicated an [redacted] Agents were instructed to determine if GOLDBERG possibly residing at that address or if this [redacted] could possibly be GOLDBERGS' [redacted] Agents instructed to report all developments to their supervisor.

CHAIT, initially mentioned in this memo was found to be Abraham Chait residing on an extensive estate, Peekskill Hollow Road, 4 miles outside of Peekskill, New York. Agents found all buildings on the estate darkened. It was ascertained that CHAIT had previously been interviewed in connection with this matter. The foregoing developments on CHAIT were reported to Supervisor [redacted] who instructed the Resident Agents on coverage (and purposes of such coverage) to be given CHAITS' estate.

Information Concerning

At 10:20 AM, 11/28/52 I received a telephone call from SA [redacted] Section 5, that AUSA [redacted] (ph.) in USA Frank Parker's office, EDNY, advised that Luchese is currently at his attorney's office, namely [redacted] 19 East 70th St., NYC and will accept service of the summons and complaint. I tried to get the Bureau line. It was being used by Asst. Director Clegg. I asked Mr. Clegg if I could interrupt the service of the line, immediately telephoned Assistant to the Director D. M. Ladd at approximately 10:29 AM. Mr. Ladd stated that the Agents should immediately proceed to serve the subpoena and I told him that the Agent was en route for that purpose. Mr. Ladd instructed that we immediately call as soon as the subpoena was served. SA [redacted] was by radio given this instruction. At 10:42 SA [redacted] telephoned from [redacted] office to advise that SA [redacted] had just served the summons and complaint. At 10:43 I telephonically informed Assistant to the Director D. M. Ladd who stated that the Director had inquired as to why [redacted] did not notify us. The Director had also inquired as to why we had not had a surveillance on the boyfriend. I explained to Mr. Ladd that we had repeatedly asked the attorney [redacted] to notify us immediately; that we had placed a surveillance on the boyfriend from the moment that we knew he had any connection with the daughter and that we had maintained such surveillance. [redacted] asked that we send a letter to the Bureau explaining this situation today. I so instructed Supervisor [redacted] Mr. Ladd then turned me over to [redacted] office, and I talked to [redacted] and apprised him of the above situation. [redacted] stated that the Bureau was making a release in Washington, that we should take no action here until further advised by the Bureau.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING

Reference: New York telephone call to Boston on November 26, 1952.

As a result of referenced New York telephone call on November 26, last, a surveillance was conducted at the Ranch House, Johnston, Rhode Island, on the evening of November 26, 1952. The results of this surveillance have been set forth in Boston teletype of November 27, 1952.

A spot surveillance was conducted at the Ranch House on the afternoon and night of November 27, 1952. It was noted that on Thanksgiving Day, the Ranch House was opened at 12:00 noon and featured a special Thanksgiving dinner during the afternoon and early evening. There were never less than sixty-five cars in the Ranch House parking lot. It was noted that the cars would stay from one hour to an hour and one-half and that automobiles were constantly moving in and out of the parking lot. Only two cars bearing New York plates were observed, one a light blue 1941 or 1942 Plymouth sedan and the other a 1950 or 1951 dark blue or black Mercury sedan. Both cars contained families and no one answered the description of LUCHESE. During the night, there were approximately seventy-five to one hundred cars in the parking lot, however, no Lincoln or Cadillac was observed with New York license plates.

For the information of the New York Office, the Ranch House is located on Route #6 which is a heavily travelled main route from New York to New England. The automobiles park in one or two parking lots. One located on the north side of the building and the other on the south side of the building. The Ranch House in the past has been frequented by gangsters and racketeers. Recently the Ranch House has endeavored to build up business by having top-notch entertainment. MEL TORME, singer, has just concluded an engagement and next week, PATTI PAGE starts an engagement. As a result, business has improved considerably and on the average night, there are from one hundred to one hundred and fifty cars in the parking lot.

It is felt that continued surveillance would be undesirable especially in view of the non-specific nature of the original information that LUCHESE might be at the Ranch House. INFORMATION CONCERNING Pursuant to telephonic instructions of Assistant to the Director D. M. Ladd and Inspector [redacted] I am outlining hereinafter certain phases of the investigation conducted with the view to serving a summons and complaint on Thomas Luchese.

b7c

SUMMARY OF INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITY

During the period of time intervening from the telephone call received by me, 5:15 PM, 11/19/52, from Inspector [redacted] indicating that the Attorney General had requested the FBI to locate Luchese for the purpose of serving summons and complaint, until the time Luchese was served with summons and complaint by SA [redacted]

[redacted] in the office of [redacted] 19 East 70th Street, New York City, at 10:40 AM, 11/28/52, there were a total of 50 Special Agents assigned varying phases of this investigation in the New York office, which Agents covered approximately 119 leads within the New York Division exclusive of leads assigned outside this Division to other field offices. Several surveillances were maintained during this period of time, and I am setting out under a separate caption more specific details concerning this matter. From the time these instructions were received, it was recognized by me and those Agents participating that this case should be afforded top priority and given vigorous and continuous investigative attention. When I received instructions at 4:03 PM, 11/19/52 from Inspector [redacted]

[redacted] that the New York office commence very discreet checks with the view to ascertaining the present whereabouts of Luchese in anticipation of a possible request from the Attorney General that the FBI seek his apprehension, I caused contacts to be made by the Agents of this office with all criminal informants of the New York office who could possibly be aware of the whereabouts of Luchese or any of the members of his family.

ACTIVITIES OF SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE
IN INSTANT MATTER

Preceding the above telephonic instructions from Inspector [redacted] 5:15 PM, 11/19/52, I had been in frequent telephone communication with the Bureau on the matter captioned ARMAND CHANKALIAN, Administrative Assistant to the U. S. Attorney, Southern District of New York. Chankalian had been receiving considerable newspaper

b6
b7c

94-419 July 19-152 [redacted]

60-11115-39

publicity because of the then New York State Crime Commission inquiry proceedings. Chankalian's associations with Thomas Luchese were being afforded considerable newspaper notoriety and I had been fully conversant with this situation.

Commencing with the receipt of the aforeindicated instructions pertaining to Luchese, I was in very close contact with the Bureau on several occasions for the purpose of keeping the Bureau posted on investigative techniques being employed and the general nature of the leads being handled. With reference to the conduct of the investigation by the New York Division, I personally gave instructions to and discussed with Supervisor [redacted] who was given the specific assignment of maintaining continuous supervision of instant case, with SA [redacted] to whom the case was assigned, SA [redacted] who was one of the Agents assigned specially to this investigation, and had a very clear conception of the over-all proceedings of the investigation. I was in conference with Supervisor [redacted] each day for the purpose of being kept currently apprised of all developments in this case. At the inception of the investigation I was in telephonic contact with U. S. Attorney Frank Parker, Eastern District of New York, for the purpose of clarifying legal questions relative to the summons and complaint. I therefore feel that I was currently cognizant of all of the activities in this investigation. I also feel that I was giving instructions and guidance during the course of this investigation.

CONTACT WITH [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] and [redacted] attorneys at law, 19 East 70th Street, NYC, [redacted] in the law firm of Schwartz & Frohlich, were first interviewed by SAS [redacted] and [redacted] on the morning of 11/20/52, the date a Special Agent of the FBI was authorized to serve the summons and complaint. At the outset of this interview Messrs. [redacted] remarked that they could not understand what all the fanfare relative to Luchese was all about inasmuch as Luchese had been in their office for approximately two hours until 5:30 PM on the evening of 11/19/52. [redacted] stated he had telephoned Deputy Marshal [redacted] Eastern District of New York, and advised that if he wanted to serve Luchese with papers he was at liberty to do so by coming to the attorney's office and serving Luchese in their presence. The details concerning the U. S. Marshal's office failure to respond to this telephone call have already been furnished the Bureau. [redacted]

[redacted] stated that he had refused to have Luchese proceed to the Eastern District of New York because it was apparent to him that Luchese would be the victim of undue notoriety and publicity. He stated that the eleven o'clock news of 11/19/52 reflected a televised scene of the Marshals in Brooklyn knocking on doors with legal papers being exhibited to the audience. As a consequence

[redacted] stated that he could visualize that if Luchese had gone to the Eastern District of New York there would be a galaxy of newsmen, sound trucks, TV cameras, photographers and other publicity seekers. [redacted] indicated there was absolutely no reason for Luchese to be evading service of any kind. He stated that he could not picture anything but trouble if Luchese's absence was continued and both Messrs. [redacted] stated that they would never under any circumstances be a party to the obstruction of justice. [redacted] then stated that he was extremely interested in cooperating with the Bureau, had a great deal of respect for Mr. Hoover and the Agents of the FBI. He stated that he was interested in having Luchese served in this civil matter with the least amount of fanfare. He assured the interviewing Agents that he would do everything in his power to effect the service of Luchese in his office. He stated that when he heard from Luchese he would do all he could to effect the service quietly and with a minimum of publicity. [redacted] promised these interviewing Agents that he would immediately notify the FBI and nobody else so that the FBI Agents could serve the summons. He stated further that he would not under any circumstances deal with the U. S. Marshal's office in the Eastern District of New York. At this initial interview Messrs. [redacted] were furnished the names of SAS [redacted] and [redacted] and the telephone number of the New York office. Subsequent to the above interview [redacted] was telephonically contacted on several occasions as follows: Approximately 4:30 PM, 11/20/52, SA [redacted] telephonically contacted [redacted] at which time [redacted] stated he had heard nothing further from Luchese. During this telephone conversation SA [redacted] furnished [redacted] with the name of SA [redacted] his home

NY 62-11115

telephone number with the request that Agent [redacted] be telephoned at any time, day or night. [redacted] specifically promised to telephone SA [redacted] either at the office if during the day time or at Agent [redacted] home at night time. Attorney [redacted] was of course advised that the office is open 24 hours a day but to insure that he could reach someone immediately conversant with the situation SA [redacted] could be reached at home if not at his office. [redacted] during this telephone conversation stated that he "wanted to do business with the FBI", and again reiterated that he would notify SA [redacted] directly whenever he was in touch with Luchese.

[redacted] was telephonically contacted 11:10 AM, 11/21/52, and again at 5:20 PM the same date. During these conversations Mr. [redacted] continued to assure the Agents that he would immediately notify the FBI on receiving word from Luchese. [redacted] reiterated his desire to have service of the summons in this matter executed by Bureau Agents. Also during these times [redacted] stated that he would not be in his office on Saturday or Sunday, November 22 and 23, 1952 respectively. [redacted] during the 5:20 PM telephone call was asked for his home address and residence telephone number to permit us to contact him in the event the necessity arose. [redacted] stated that as a matter of policy he would not disclose his residence telephone number nor would he furnish his home address. He did indicate that he had complete information concerning the manner in which to contact Agents of this office and the office and reiterated his complete intent to do so.

On 11/24/52 at 12:45 PM SA [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] telephonically at his office but was advised that [redacted] was not in his office and was not expected back until 3:30 PM or later that day. A message was left requesting [redacted] to get in touch with SA [redacted]. On the same day, 11/24/52, at 3 PM [redacted] returned [redacted] call and stated that he had no information and that there was no news concerning Luchese. He stated that he had not heard from the subject. [redacted] emphasized and reiterated at this time that he would arrange with the Bureau to serve Luchese as soon as he had word from the subject. [redacted] stated that he definitely would not surrender the case to the U. S. Marshal at Brooklyn because of the probable publicity that would ensue there. [redacted] stated that he fully expected to hear from Luchese "sometime this week", but again pointed out that this was just his feeling and not based on any information. At no time during any of the foregoing telephone conversations with [redacted] did he indicate that it was his intention to get in touch with U. S. Attorney Frank J. Parker, Eastern District of New York. In fact, Parker's name never entered into any of these conversations. At the time of the last telephone contact, 11/24/52, it became apparent to the Agent from the tone of [redacted] voice that [redacted] was getting a little impatient with being telephonically contacted so frequently. The fact that the arrangements had been mentioned to [redacted] on several occasions also caused [redacted] to state that he was thoroughly cognizant of the arrangements and would without question carry them out. It was therefore felt that to continue to make additional telephone contacts might jeopardize the spirit of cooperation which it was felt then existed with [redacted]. There was no reason for the Agents to disbelieve [redacted] assurances. [redacted] is reputed to be a prominent, reliable New York attorney.

b6

NY 62-11115

b7C

At 10:12 AM, 11/28/52, SAA [redacted] received a telephone call from Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] Eastern District of New York. [redacted] indicated that he had just received a telephone call from [redacted] who advised that Luchese was then in the law office of Schwartz and Frohlich at 19 East 70th Street, NYC, and was available for service of the summons and complaint. [redacted] stated that he had informed [redacted] that he would notify the FBI Agent authorized to make the service. This information was immediately relayed to me and I in turn relayed the information to Assistant to the Director D. M. Ladd, indicating that SAS [redacted] were proceeding to the office of Schwartz and Frohlich with instructions that immediately upon the serving of the summons and complaint they were to telephonically apprise me. SA [redacted] served the summons and complaint on Luchese at approximately 10:40 AM, and SA [redacted] informed me at 10:42 AM that the summons and complaint had been served. I in turn immediately thereafter telephonically apprised Assistant to the Director D. M. Ladd of the above. With reference to the service of the summons and complaint served by SA [redacted] upon Luchese, Luchese accepted the summons and his only comment was "Thank you." When queried concerning his whereabouts during the past week, Luchese refused to comment. [redacted] was specifically asked why he did not notify the FBI directly that Luchese was in his office and available for service as he had repeatedly stated he would do. [redacted] advised that he felt that in his client's best interests he should contact U. S. Attorney Frank J. Parker, Eastern District of New York, who was in charge of the denaturalization proceedings. He stated that he attempted to call Parker and was advised by one of Parker's assistants that Parker was unavailable at his office. [redacted] therefore told Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] that Luchese was in his office and would accept service. [redacted] stated that he further informed [redacted] that he desired the FBI to serve the summons and complaint.

b6
b7C

NY 62-1115

Messrs. [redacted]

[redacted] all advised the Agents that they appreciated the way in which the FBI had handled the service of the summons. They stated further that they have always had the utmost respect for Director J. Edgar Hoover and all of his Agents and they felt that the service of the summons by the FBI was handled in a "businesslike manner". [redacted] then stated that Luchese's recent notoriety was directly attributed to Rudolph Halley to further Halley's political ambitions. [redacted] then remarked: "Halley hasn't heard the last of this yet.... the day of reckoning is yet to come." [redacted] then remarked: "This whole fantastic affair is a case of mistaken identity", and explained that he referred to the notoriety identifying Luchese as the successor to Frank Costello.

Preliminary newspaper information concerning Luchese reflected that he had [redacted]. On 11/20/52 investigation conducted at [redacted] failed to reflect that [redacted] was in attendance or had ever attended [redacted]. Further investigation caused interview on 11/22/52 with [redacted] who made available the school records of [redacted] advised that [redacted] two closest friends were [redacted] and [redacted]. Between 4:30 PM and 5 PM, 11/22/52, [redacted] was interviewed and advised that [redacted] had a boy friend, TOM GAMBINO, who formerly had attended Manhattan College, NYC, and lived some place in Brooklyn, N.Y. The same investigating Agents immediately proceeded to Manhattan College and succeeded in finally locating someone to make the records available at approximately 6:15 PM. The records reflected that THOMAS GAMBINO resided at 2230 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, N.Y. This information was telephoned to the New York office and two other Agents were directed to proceed to the Gambino residence, arriving there at approximately 7:15 PM. Gambino's father was interviewed and advised that his son had left home at approximately 6 PM that evening, namely 11/22/52. Gambino's father further stated that his son was engaged to [redacted] but claimed to have no additional information. A neighborhood investigation conducted at that time reflected that THOMAS GAMBINO had been seen in proximity to his home with a girl, not identified. On 11/24/52 a photograph was obtained from [redacted] and this photograph was exhibited in the aforementioned neighborhood and was identified as being the girl who was with THOMAS GAMBINO at 6 PM, 11/22/52. From the time of the arrival of the Agents at approximately 7:15 PM, 11/22/52 thereafter a close continuous surveillance was maintained on the Gambino residence. At approximately 2:15 PM on 11/23/52 THOMAS GAMBINO was observed by the surveilling Agents to return to his home. He was immediately intercepted before going into the house and in the presence of his father he was questioned for information concerning [redacted] or any member of the Luchese family. THOMAS GAMBINO refused to state where he had been from 6 PM, 11/22/52 to 2:15 PM 11/23/52. This surveillance was discontinued of course at the conclusion of the interview. However, from that time on a spot check surveillance was maintained on the Gambino residence up until the time of the service of the summons. This surveillance failed to reflect that any further contact was made by Thomas Gambino with any member of the Luchese family. It is to be noted that Thomas Gambino was interviewed again the following week, 11/25/52, at which time Gambino continued to refuse to divulge any information.

INDEPENDENT EFFORTS MADE TO LOCATE
CONCETTA LUCHESE, WIFE OF THOMAS LUCHESE,
AND [redacted]

THOMAS LUCHESE maintained residences at 106 Parsons Boulevard, Malba, Queens, Long Island, N.Y., and Royat Street, Lido Beach, Long Island, N.Y. There was a continuous spot check surveillance on both of the above residences from the inception of the investigation to its conclusion. On Thanksgiving Day there were continuous fixed surveillances on the above residences maintained from 8 AM to Midnight. It is to be noted that [redacted] who is a 1st Lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Suffolk Air Base, was intercepted as he entered the residence at Lido on 11/22/52. [redacted] had previously been interrogated on a prior occasion and was again interviewed subsequent to the above occasion and indicated on all three occasions that he had not been in contact with [redacted]. He was during the period of this investigation assigned duties at Suffolk Air Base, with the exception of the trip he made to his home at Lido for the express purpose of meeting [redacted]. During the time he was interviewed at the Lido residence he stated that he had anticipated seeing his family and was surprised when he found that his family was not there.

OTHER SPOT CHECK SURVEILLANCES

The mother of Thomas Luchese is FRANCESCA LUCHESE, 99-22 31st Avenue, Corona, Queens, N.Y. She was interviewed on three separate occasions for knowledge concerning the whereabouts of her son and any member of the Luchese family. She denied knowledge of their whereabouts and would furnish no information. Spot check surveillance was maintained on her residence during the period of this investigation. A fixed surveillance was maintained on this residence on Thanksgiving Day from 8 AM until Midnight.

Thomas Luchese, was interviewed on Sunday, 11/23/52 and proved to be aggressively antagonistic. Spot check surveillances had been made on this address prior to the interview commencing 11/22/52 until the termination of the investigation.

At 6:40 PM, 11/27/52, LEE MORTIMER, columnist, Daily MIRROR, telephoned me at my residence to advise he had just received a hand tip, namely, a friend of his advised that two New York City Detectives were alleged to have heard that LUCHESE was hanging with PAPA DUTCH GOLDBERG, also known as LOUIE SCHONBERG, who presumably resided some place over in the East Third Street area near the 300 Block. LUCHESE was also supposed to have been going up to see ABE CHAIT, who is in the trucking and garment business, owns a stable of horses, and lives in Peekskill, New York. LEE MORTIMER stated he could furnish no additional information but indicated that since the Daily News also had this information, he contemplated mentioning this tip in his column, which would "hit the streets at 8:30 PM, 11/27/52."

I immediately telephonically contacted Supervisor [redacted] and instructed that Agents immediately check the above information.

I further telephonically contacted Inspector [redacted] at the Bureau at 7 PM, apprised him of the above information. I, at this time, discussed the progress of the investigation in instant case with Inspector [redacted] and told him that we contemplated recontacting the Narcotics Bureau, Internal Revenue, ATU, Secret Service, with a view to reviewing any files that they might have in an effort to secure additional leads on the location of LUCHESE. Inspector [redacted] concurred in this contemplated procedure.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted]

Inquiry in the vicinity of 150 Sunny Isles Boulevard, Sunny Isles, Florida, disclosed that that is the address of an Italian-American restaurant known as the Villa Vivolla. A surveillance of that establishment developed that it had apparently not yet been opened for business, and a 1951 black, Fleetwood Cadillac bearing New York License XN-7388 was observed parked immediately adjacent thereto. Telephonic inquiry of the New York Office disclosed that this automobile was registered to ROSE ROSATO, the sister of THOMAS LUCHESE. A surveillance of this automobile and the Villa Vivolla Restaurant on the morning of November 21, 1952, failed to indicate the presence of THOMAS LUCHESE. Thereafter, ROSE ROSATO and her husband, JOSEPH ROSATO, were interviewed at the Villa Vivolla Restaurant. ROSE ROSATO admitted that she was the sister of THOMAS LUCHESE. JOSEPH ROSATO refused to permit her to talk with Agents [redacted] and [redacted] except in his presence. She stated that she last saw THOMAS LUCHESE during the first part of October, 1952, at his home in New York City. She mentioned that he also had a country home at Lido Beach, Long Island, New York, and that he has three brothers and one other sister, all of whom reside in New York City. At that point in the interview JOSEPH ROSATO terminated it and advised Agents [redacted] and [redacted] they could not furnish any additional information about themselves or about anything else.

Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, and [redacted] advised that THOMAS LUCHESE was unknown to them except for the fact that their registration records indicated that THOMAS LUKESE, apparently identical, resided at the Martinique Hotel from January 18 to February 7, 1949. This information had previously been developed during the investigation of the matter entitled, "ARMAND CHANKALIAN, Administrative Assistant to the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York: MISCONDUCT IN OFFICE". During the latter inquiry, [redacted]

[redacted] produced the account records of the Martinique Hotel which disclosed that ARMAND CHANKALIAN gave his address as New York City when he registered at the Martinique Hotel February 2, 1949. He occupied Room 1201 the night of February 2, 1949, and Room 514 the nights of February 3 and 4, 1952. He then occupied Room 401 the nights of February 5 and 6. The account records do not show any long distance telephone calls made by CHANKALIAN. His account indicates that he paid cash for his room in the amount of $121.23. The registration record showed that CHANKALIAN gave his address as Room 162, Hotel Astor, New York City.

The account record of THOMAS LUKESE indicated that he registered at the Martinique Hotel January 18, 1949, and occupied Room 511 until January 28, 1949. He then changed to Room 411 which he occupied until February 7. His bill was also paid in cash. The registration card indicated that THOMAS LUKESE gave his address as Brownell, Ltd., 262 - 38th Street, New York City.

The account record for [redacted] reflected that he registered at the Martinique Hotel on January 18, 1949, and resided in Room 514 until February 4, 1949. From February 4 to 6, 1949, he occupied Room 401. His bill was paid in cash. The registration card showed that [redacted] gave his address as care of [redacted]. It is to be noted that during the investigation of ARMAND CHANKALIAN information was received by the New York Office that CHANKALIAN, LUKESE and [redacted] were close friends and had been together at the Martinique Hotel.

Messrs. [redacted] and [redacted] advised that they had no record or recollection of LUKESE, CHANKALIAN or [redacted] having ever stayed at the Martinique Hotel subsequent to February, 1949.

MICHAEL COPPOLA, was., FBI Number 677976, was contacted at the Italian Village Restaurant, 2225 Liberty Avenue, Miami Beach. He advised that he had been a close friend of THOMAS LUCHESE for many years, having grown up with him in the same section of New York City. He further stated that he was unquestionably LUCHESE's closest friend in Florida. He stated he was positive that LUCHESE was not in Florida and had not been in Florida during the past year. He said he had heard from a source that he refused to identify that LUCHESE was not trying to avoid service of a summons in connection with his deportation hearings, but that he was trying to avoid having to appear publicly before the New York Crime Commission. COPPOLA stated that he did not know exactly where LUCHESE was located, but he thought that possibly he might be able to send word to him through a source that he refused to identify. COPPOLA stated that he would try to "reach out" and get word to THOMAS LUCHESE that the best thing for him to do would be to come in and accept service of a summons.

that he knew THOMAS LUCHESE from around the Piping Rock Casino, Saratoga Springs, New York. He said that he did not know where he was located at the present time, but felt that if LUCHESE was currently in Florida he might very well have heard of him. He said he had heard nothing indicating LUCHESE had recently been in Florida.

FRED ANGERSOLA, wa. FRED KING, is also widely acquainted among the Italian underworld. He was contacted at the Italian Village Restaurant, 225 Liberty Avenue, Miami Beach, and stated that he knows THOMAS LUCHESE but had heard nothing indicating that he was presently in Florida. He stated that he did not know where LUCHESE could be located, although he admitted knowing many of his friends and associates. He stated that LUCHESE has literally thousands of friends and admirers, but that he did not wish to presently mention the names of any of them. He said, however, should he learn of the location of LUCHESE he would endeavor to get word to him that his surrender could be arranged without too much difficulty.

FRED KAPLAN, well-known New York criminal attorney who is currently staying at the Sans Souci Hotel, Miami Beach, advised that he knew THOMAS LUCHESE, having met him around the New York night clubs in the late 1930's. He said, however, he had not had any direct contact with him recently. He promised, however, to communicate with certain contacts of his own in New York City and endeavor to make arrangements for LUCHESE to surrender.

On November 21, 1952, SAs [redacted] and the writer interviewed JOHN FRANCIS O'BRIEN at his room, #27, Terrace Hotel, 242-44 Adams Avenue, Scranton, Pa. Mr. O'BRIEN is 71 years old, having been born in New York City on July 18, 1881, and is by trade a linotype operator. He has been unemployed since September 12, 1952, when he gave up his job at the Scranton Tribune Newspaper because of ruptured varicose veins in his left leg. It was noted that he had the left leg from his knee down heavily bandaged. He said he recently returned from Florida where he had stayed at the Sylvia Hotel in Miami from September 24 to November 2, 1952. He traveled to Florida by train and returned by bus.

He said he is married, is childless, and that his wife, a registered nurse in New Jersey, is residing in Morrisville, Pa. He disclaimed any marital difficulties, explaining that his wife is kept extremely busy with her work and he believes there are better opportunities for him to obtain employment in Scranton, plus the fact that he can live more inexpensively in that city.

Mr. O'BRIEN alleged that he has had over thirty-five years of experience as a linotype operator and had previously worked for the Tribune when it was called the Scranton Republican. He has also worked for the Old State Gazette in Trenton, N. J., from approximately 1925 to 1931. His work on the Scranton Republican was during the 1930's. Mr. O'BRIEN also gave information that he grew up in Washington, D. C., and had worked in the Government Printing Office.

Mr. O'BRIEN volunteered the information that he had written to THOMAS LUCHESE approximately ten days ago for the purpose of asking the latter for a job. He mentioned this fact when he was lamenting his inability to obtain work. He said that he had been reading about LUCHESE and in view of his belief that wealthy racketeers invest in newspapers and utilities, decided to write him. He said he wrote something in his letter to the effect that if LUCHESE or any of his associates owned a newspaper he was making application for a job with them and stressed his thirty-five years experience. He used an address for LUCHESE of Palisades, N. J., as he said he had seen that address in the paper and not knowing any other, used it.

Mr. O'BRIEN denied knowing LUCHESE or ever having seen or having anything to do with him other than the mentioned letter. He disclaimed any knowledge of anyone who might know LUCHESE or where the latter might be. He asserted that his only intention in writing to LUCHESE was to obtain work and felt that such an approach would accomplish such purpose. He said he had not had an answer to his letter.

Mr. O'BRIEN denied any arrest record and said the only trouble he has ever been in were several fist fights when he was younger. He indicated a leaning toward reading and cited many names of national hoodlums he had read about in the papers and magazines.

Mr. B. B. POWELL, Managing Editor of the Scranton Tribune, advised SA [redacted] that O'BRIEN has worked for the paper as indicated and that he is regarded as somewhat lazy. On both occasions of his leaving the paper, there has been some question as to his initiative and willingness to work. Other than that, Mr. POWELL said there was nothing derogatory concerning the man.

On November 26, 1952, United States Attorney FRANK PARKER, Southern District of New York, telephonically advised that a [redacted] of the "Brooklyn Eagle" newspaper told him that one of his bosses had allegedly seen LUCHESE several times at the St. George Hotel in Brooklyn.

The subject's photograph was exhibited to all clerks, on desk duty as well as elevator operators, bellhops, restaurant personnel, etc., with negative results.

[redacted] Rent Control Commission, 145 East 54 Street, New York City, stated that he did not know LUCHESE personally but did hear that the following people were acquainted with him:

[redacted] Municipal Building, New York City

[redacted] brother of above.

On November 20, 1952, MICHAEL McQUIRE, Chief of Police, Bronxville, New York, advised that he believed he had seen the subject having lunch with an unknown man at Doran's Restaurant, 1412 Midland, Bronxville, New York, on November 17, 1952. Investigation was immediately undertaken and the owner of the hotel as well as the manager and waiters were all shown a photograph of the subject with negative results.

On November 22, 1952, [redacted] advised that he thought he saw LUCHESE in a 1952 Cadillac bearing New York plates [redacted]

[redacted] to whom the above license plate is registered, advised that he has never met LUCHESE and explained that during the day of November 22, 1952, his cousin [redacted] was riding with him in the car.

~~Didn't Lie to U. S.~~ Luchese Insists

Thomas (Three Finger Brown) Luchese, underworld figure, yesterday opposed the Government's suit to denaturalize him, denying in papers filed in Federal Court, Brooklyn, that he obtained his U. S. citizenship in 1943 by fraud and deceit.

Luchese claimed he had answered truthfully all questions in his application and denied failure to list a number of arrests in which the charges against him had been dismissed.

Luchese also denied ever using aliases. He said he had never been arrested as Thomas Arra, as the Government charges. He asserted the name Thomas Lucase, which the Government listed as one of his aliases, was merely a phonetic spelling of Luchese.

For those reasons, Luchese, who was exposed at recent State Crime Commission hearings as an ex-convict, dope traffic suspect and friend of high political figures, asked dismissal of the suit to strip him of citizenship. The suit is a government preliminary toward deporting him.

TO: SA _____

FILE # 94-419 Subfile 19

FROM: SAC, New York

SUBJECT: THOMAS LUCHESE, wa.

Three Fingers Brown

The above-named subject is considered a top hoodlum in the New York area.

The Bureau has authorized the obtaining of, and maintenance of, a current, up-to-date file on each of the Top Hoodlums in this area reflecting their complete background, criminal record, identification record, home address, whereabouts at all times, acquaintances, businesses engaged in (legitimate or otherwise), hangouts, known license plate numbers of cars owned or operated by them, places of amusement frequented, where he keeps or invests his money, an up-to-date photograph of the subject and the ability to recognize the subject.

Accordingly, you are instructed to:

First:

Determine if a case file other than a 94 case already exists on the subject, and if so, have it consolidated into instant case, bearing a 94 file number. For purposes of this program, it is desirable to have all information in our files relative to each subject correlated into an appropriate 94 case file.

Second: OPEN SUBFILE 19 ON THIS MEMO

If no 94 case file is found, a 94 case will be opened on the basis of the information, and you are to handle it promptly so that it will be in a current condition at all times.

Third:

Review all references on the subject and prepare a summary memorandum for the case file and have the index cards which are identical consolidated onto one index card. A copy of the complete summary memorandum should be forwarded to the Bureau.

The following sources must be checked, but you are not limited hereby:

1. Obtain identification and criminal record up-to-date.
2. Credit record.

12. Bank accounts.
13. Toll calls from Telephone Company.
14. Immigration and Naturalization. (INS has case files on most of these subjects, particularly those subjects who have been naturalized.)

In addition to the above you are also to contact symbol numbered informants and Potential Criminal Informants who should be very valuable to you. You should obtain from these informants or any informant you may develope the position that the subject holds in the underworld, to what echelon he belongs, who is above him and below him in his criminal associations. You should also determine the type of illegal activities that the subject is engaged in and obtain all the information that is available regarding this item.

If in the course of the investigation you develope any substantial indication that the subject is engaged in a violation of a Federal Law, of course, you will open a substantive case immediately.

For the present at least, the Bureau instructs that no surveillances are to be conducted.

The purpose of this program is to maintain a complete current file on the top hoodlums in this division. It is imperative, therefore, that the case assigned to you be maintained in a current status at all times.

b7D

Information in the files of this office contained in a survey in the period from April 15 to October 15, 1945 reflects that THOMAS LUCHESE had been arrested five times by the New York City Police Department, including two arrests for homicide. The files also reflect that BROWN is in the Policy, Labor organization, Window Cleaning, and package liquor store game. He may have been a body guard for VITO MARCANTONIO.

NY 94-419-19

The New York State Board of Parole reported dated June 10, 1949 concerning LUCHESE contained the following regarding criminal activities by LUCHESE:

NY 94-119-19

Under the heading of "Narcotics" the report indicates that it was learned that LUCHESE's name appeared in several investigations initiated by the Bureau of Narcotics and that in 1942 and 1943 LUCHESE was alleged to have been the head man of the "107th Street Narcotics Mob." The author of the parole report indicated that he had ascertained at the Bureau of Narcotics that there was no direct information indicating that LUCHESE had been active in narcotics circles in recent years. According to this information supplied by the Bureau of Narcotics, LUCHESE is now "too big" to bother with the distribution of narcotics and that if he is still active in this field he is in on the upper level and merely acts as a banker when cash is needed to purchase a narcotics shipment.

According to this parole report, it is believed that a good portion of the money collected goes to various union officials and heads of the locals who in turn do not attempt to organize these non-union shops. However, if these non-union shops fail to make payments there is a threat of personal injuries at the hands of these collectors or their goons.

LUCHESE is tied in with ABE CHAIT through LUCHESE's brother-in-law, ROSADO, who controls trucking in the garment center. If these non-union shops fail to co-operate they can be immediately "choked off" by the failure of CHAIT's trucks to pick up or make deliveries for the shops.

Astoria, Long Island, New York

ED CORSI, Industrial Commercial Department of Labor, State of New York 60 East 96th Street, advised in November, 1952 that he did not know LUCHESE personally, however, he had heard that LUCHESE has been in close association with the MORETTI brothers, JOE ADONIS and VITO GENOVESE.

According to the information contained in the files of the United States Bureau of Narcotics at New York, LUCHESE has been long associates with many notorious criminals and the Bureau of Narcotics has long listed him as a major suspect.

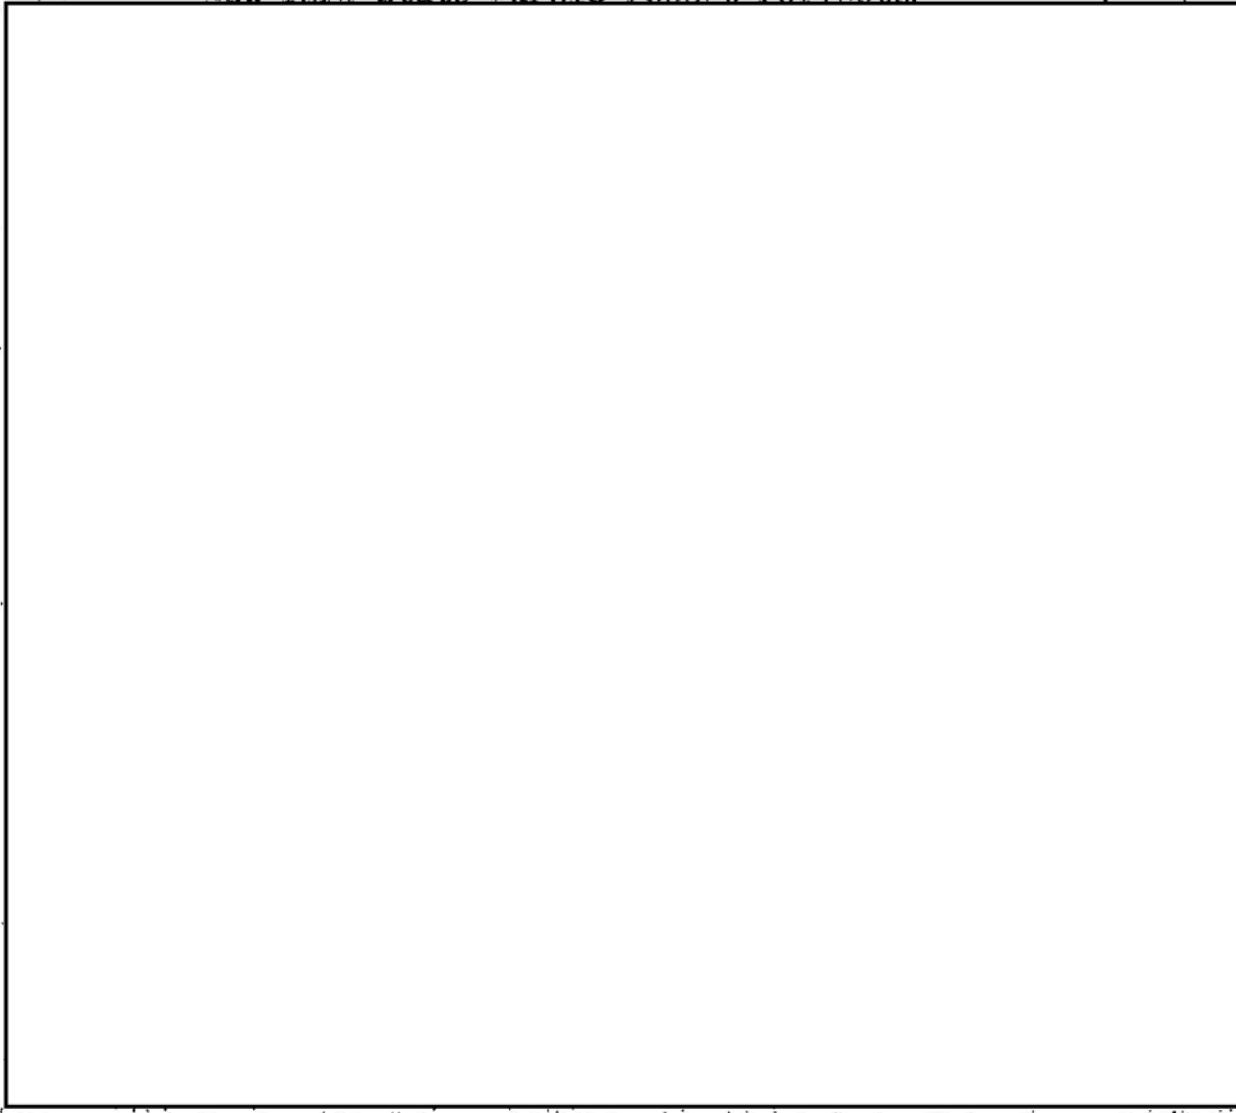

In March, 1941, Agent [redacted] of the Narcotics Bureau raided Duke's Bar and Grill, New Jersey headquarters of the notorious MORETTI Gang and found LUCHESE in a conference with WILLIE MORETTI and other known hoodlums. LUCHESE has been observed by Narcotics Agents in company of such notorious traffickers as SALVATORE SANTORA, with alias TOM MIX; JOHN ORMENTO, with alias BIG JOHN; MIKE COPPOLA, with alias TRIGGER MIKE; CHARLES ALBERO, with alias CHARLIE BULLETS, and others of the so called "107th Street Mob."

"Inquiry in the vicinity of 150 Sunny Isles Boulevard, Sunny Isles, Florida, disclosed that that is the address of an Italian-American restaurant known as the Villa Vivolla. A surveillance of that establishment developed that it had apparently not yet been opened for business, and a 1951 black, Fleetwood Cadillac bearing New York License XN-7388 was observed parked immediately adjacent thereto. Telephonic inquiry of the New York Office disclosed that this automobile was registered to ROSE ROSATO, the sister of THOMAS LUCHESE. A surveillance of this automobile and the Villa Vivolla Restaurant on the morning of November 21, 1952, failed to indicate the presence of THOMAS LUCHESE. Thereafter, ROSE ROSATO and her husband, JOSEPH ROSATO, were interviewed at the Villa Vivolla Restaurant. ROSE ROSATO admitted that she was the sister of THOMAS LUCHESE. JOSEPH ROSATO refused to permit her to talk with Agents [redacted] except in his presence. She stated that she last saw THOMAS LUCHESE during the first part of October, 1952, at his home in New York City. She mentioned that he also had a country home at Lido Beach, Long Island, New York, and that he has three brothers and one other sister, all of whom reside in New York City. At that point in the interview JOSEPH ROSATO terminated it and advised Agents [redacted] they could not furnish any additional information about themselves or about anything else.

respectively of the Wofford Beach Hotel, 2400 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, which was formerly known as the Wofford Hotel, were contacted and both advised that THOMAS LUCHESE was unknown to them under his true name or any of his known aliases. A check of the existing records of the Wofford Beach Hotel failed to show any information concerning him. [redacted] promised to advise the Miami Office should they learn of the presence of THOMAS LUCHESE in the future.

[redacted] Martinique Hotel, 6423

Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, and [redacted] advised that THOMAS LUCHESE was unknown to them except for the fact that their registration records indicated that THOMAS LUKESE, apparently identical, resided at the Martinique Hotel from January 18 to February 7, 1949. This information had previously been developed during the investigation of the matter entitled, 'ARMAND CHANKALIAN, Administrative Assistant to the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York: MISCONDUCT IN OFFICE'. During the latter inquiry, [redacted]

[redacted] produced the account records of the Martinique Hotel which disclosed that ARMAND CHANKALIAN gave his address as New York City when he registered at the Martinique Hotel February 2, 1949. He occupied Room 1201 the night of February 2, 1949, and Room 514 the nights of February 3 and 4, 1952. He then occupied Room 401 the nights of February 5 and 6. The account records do not show any long distance telephone calls made by CHANKALIAN. His account indicates that he paid cash for his room in the amount of $121.23. The registration record showed that CHANKALIAN gave his address as Room 162, Hotel Astor, New York City.

"The account record of THOMAS LUKESE indicated that he registered at the Martinique Hotel January 18, 1949, and occupied Room 511 until January 28, 1949. He then changed to Room 411 which he occupied until February 7. His bill was also paid in cash. The registration card indicated that THOMAS LUKESE gave his address as Brownell, Ltd., 262 - 38th Street, New York City.

"The account record for [redacted] reflected that he registered at the Martinique Hotel on January 18, 1949, and resided in Room 514 until February 4, 1949. From February 4 to 6, 1949, he occupied Room 401. His bill was paid in cash. The registration card showed that [redacted] gave his address as care of City Court, New York City, New York. It is to be noted that during the investigation of ARMAND CHANKALIAN information was received by the New York Office that CHANKALIAN, LUKESE and [redacted] were close friends and had been together at the Martinique Hotel.

He stated that he did not know where LUCHESE could be located, although he admitted knowing many of his friends and associates. He stated that LUCHESE has literally thousands of friends and admirers, but that he did not wish to presently mention the names of any of them. He said, however, should he learn of the location of LUCHESE he would endeavor to get word to him that his surrender could be arranged without too much difficulty.

"FRED KAPLAN, well-known New York criminal attorney who is currently staying at the Sans Souci Hotel, Miami Beach, advised that he knew THOMAS LUCHESE, having met him around the New York night clubs in the late 1930's. He said, however, he had not had any direct contact with him recently. He promised, however, to communicate with certain contacts of his own in New York City and endeavor to make arrangements for LUCHESE to surrender.

POLITICAL CONNECTIONS

The "New York Post", New York City newspaper in its issue of November 5, 1950, charged that THOMAS LUCHESE, commonly known as THREE FINGER BROWN, a notorious East Harlem racketeer, has since 1945 fused himself with the furtherance of the political career of VINCENT IMPELLITTERI. The article stated that BROWN's name is a "household word" at Tammany Headquarters, 331 Madison Avenue and that LUCHESE used to visit CARMINE DE SAPIO, Tammany Leader at the latter's Washington Square apartment.

On September 14, 1950 Detective [redacted] New York City Police Department, related that a year or two ago Assistant United States Attorney ARMAND CHANKALIAN, Southern District of New York, accompanied THOMAS LUCHESE on a vacation trip to Florida and further that some time prior to the appearance of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee in New York City in 1951, CHANKALIAN had approached a member of the committee for the purpose of preventing the calling of LUCHESE before the committee.

In the issue of February 14, 1951 the New York "Herald Tribune" in an article concerning the Senate Investigating Committee indicated that Senator KEFAUVER announced that the committee process server had been trying for a week to subpoena THOMAS LUCHESE. The article further stated that Republican candidate for mayor EDWARD CORSI had named LUCHESE as supportor of Mayor VINCENT IMPELLITTERI.

On October 30, 1952 JOSEPH KAITZ of the New York State Crime Commission advised that his files reflect that MYLES LANE, United States Attorney, Southern District of New York and THOMAS LUCHESE were registered in a suite at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, DC on September 14, 15, 1950 and that the hotel bill for LANE was paid for by LUCHESE. LANE registered from 132 West 70th Street, New York City and LUCHESE from 106 Parsons Boulevard, Malba, Long Island.

"Re: THOMAS LUCHESE
alias THREE FINGER BROWN
NYCPD # 68834

"LUCHESE is generally regarded as the successor of FRANK COSTELLO with respect to influence over crime and politics in the New York City area. In 1912 LUCHESE served three years, eight months for Grand Larceny. In 1949 LUCHESE received a certificate of good conduct from the New York State Parole Board, giving limited restoration of civil rights. Immediately thereafter he applied for naturalization as a United States citizen. Although he disclosed prior conviction, he neglected to mention numerous arrests subsequent to his conviction.

"Subject is reported to be very close to and have influence with the following public officials:

MYLES LANE
United States Attorney, Southern District of New York

AMELIO LAURITANO
Magistrate, New York City
(Former United States Attorney and Assistant to LANE when LANE was chief of the Criminal Division)

ARMAND CHANKALIAN
Administrative Assistant to LANE

THOMAS MURPHY

The files of the United States Bureau of Narcotics, New York, reflect the memorandum for the file dated February 27, 1951 regarding THOMAS LUCHESE, alias THREE FINGER BROWN which states:

"On February 23, in company with [redacted]
I interviewed EDWARD CORSI, Commissioner of Labor, State of New York, and Republican candidate for May or New York City in the 1950 election.

b7c

"Mr. CORSI stated that the statements he made during the last campaign with respect to THOMAS LUCHESE, also known as "THREE - FINGER BROWN," were true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. He stated that he was formerly a resident of the East Harlem District, which was LUCHESE's neighborhood, and that as a result of being a resident and active in political affairs over a number of years, certain information has come to him from sources which he believes to be absolutely reliable.

"He stated that IMPELLITTERI and LUCHESE met several times during the campaign at 55 East Houston Street in Bentivegna's Restaurant; that LUCHESE had IMPELLITTERI as a guest at his home on a number of occasions; that LUCHESE has been prominent in East Harlem affairs for a long number of years; that he is a sort of overlord over such men as JOEY RAO, MIKE COPPOLA, and JOE STRETCH; that he could not state precisely what racket, or rackets, if any, LUCHESE is in, but he is satisfied in his own mind and conscience that LUCHESE is very definitely connected with these rackets; that LUCHESE has been, for many years, a very strong supporter of VITO MARCANTONIO, who appointed his son a Cadet of West Point; that BERT STAND could verify the fact that LUCHESE backed IMPELLITTERI for the job of President of the Council in 1945; that is that he induced the Leaders of the Hall to get behind IMPELLITTERI; that LUCHESE is a close friend of TOM MURPHY, present Police Commissioner, and has attempted to advance MURPHY's position with leaders in the Hall; (MURPHY was allegedly at LUCHESE's table at the American-Irish Historical Society dinner and the New York County Democratic dinner.)

"Mr. CORSI stated that he did not use all of this material during the campaign because he felt that it would serve no useful purpose in blacking people indiscriminately, but that he was surprised and shocked to hear that the Mayor did not readily admit being acquainted with LUCKESE. CORSI said that during the campaign much rumor and gossip reached him, such as that LUCKESE gave $27,000 to IMPELLITTERI's campaign in two installments - one for $9,000 and one for $18,000.

"Mr. CORSI stated that at the time he was making his disclosures in campaign speeches, independently and without any cooperation whatsoever, substantially the same revelations were made in the Post in an article by SPIVACK, who he does not know and has never met. Likewise, one DAVID CARR wrote a speech for PECORA's use mentioning IMPELLITTERI and LUCKESE, which was not used by PECORA, for one reason or another. It is Mr. CORSI's impression that the IMPELLITTERI forces believe that he was given the CARR speech. Mr. CORSI states his information was wholly apart from anything CARR had collected.

"Mr. CORSI further stated his information was that the underworld was split in this campaign - COSTELLO's faction going for PECORA, and LUCKESE's faction for IMPELLITTERI, that IMPELLITTERI had incurred the wrath of FRANK COSTELLO because he refused to shake hands with him at FRANK MANCUSO's annual ball. Mr. CORSI also said that LUCKESE's influence is not of recent vintage, but goes back at least six or seven years, or more; that in 1944 he sponsored a dinner at a large East Side Hotel, probably the Pierre, for EDWARD ENNIS, who was, at that time being groomed by LUCKESE for District Attorney of New York City. CORSI hastened to add that he did not believe that ENNIS was part of this mob, but he believed their interest in ENNIS arose from the fact that he was Chief of the Department of Justice Alien Enemy Hearing Section at the time the Italians were taken off the Alien Enemy list.

"Mr. CORSI believes that LUCKESE is in some way tied up with the Mastic Acres Development, which is a project of SHIRLEY's who was the Campaign Manager for IMPELLITTERI.

"Mr. CORSI also stated that, in his opinion, VITO GENOVESE is a top power in rackets in New York, over COSTELLO and LUCKESE.

NY 98-119-19

"Mr. CORSI stated CHARLIE SCUPUTO (Little Gun), whose wife is a lawyer, is a power in Harlem politics in connection with VITO MARCANTONIO and LUCHESE."

The New York State Board of Parole referred to in this memorandum indicated that during January, February and March, 1949 phone calls made from LUCHESE's home included 45 calls to Pelham 8-2327. This phone is listed to AMEDEO LAURITANO of 11 Fraser Street, Pelham, New York. Mr. LAURITANO at the time was an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York.

This report also indicates that according to a source of the Parole Board, LUCHESE in an obvious effort to maintain harmonious relations with each of the major parties in the New York City area has contacts with the following:

Democratic Party:
CHARLES H. SILVER

Republican Party:
ARTHUR H. SCHWARTZ

American Labor Party:
VITO MARCANTONIO

When interviewed by parole officer on January 16, 1949 LUCHESE stated that he had driven to Miami Beach, Florida in the company of JOHN MERLI, Secretary to Judge Capizzoli and Mr. ARMAND CHANKALIAN, Administrative Assistant, Southern District of New York, and stated that they had all stopped at the Martinique Hotel at 65th Street at Miami Beach until February 6, 1949, when he had driven back to New York.

In addition he stated that on February 19, 1949 he and THOMAS GAGLIANO and THOMAS VALENTI had traveled to Florida by train, stayed at the Hotel Tower for one week and returned to New York City by train on February 26, 1949.

An article appeared in the New York "Daily News" on November 11, 1952 by EDWARD REID and NEIL PATTERSON under the heading "Racket Boss Has Tie-In To Halls Of Justice" referring to LUCHESE. This article states "THOMAS (THREE FINGER BROWN) LUCHESE, convicted buddy of LUCKY LUCIANO and FRANK COSTELLO and reputedly the new rackets boss in Manhattan, owes a major debt to one man for the showing of "innocence by association" which THREE FINGER has been able to make by mingling with an impressive array of judges, magistrates, legislators and other city and federal officials. The article goes on to say that LUCHESE owes a debt of gratitude to ARMAND CHANKALIAN. For this he is a sort of social sponsor for him.

This article also reflects among the records of the Hotel Astor where CHANKALIAN had lived for seven years, two tabs at the Astor for March 18 and 20, 1948 for LUCHESE with a Washington address, for rooms 300 and 302 at $11.55 a day for two days and the bill including phone calls totaling $25.08 were settled by transferring them to CHANKALIAN's account at the Astor for payment.
